TEAM CAMP 2015

JOHNNY JONES
BASKETBALL CAMP

FRIDAY, JUNE 5 - SATURDAY, JUNE 6, 2015

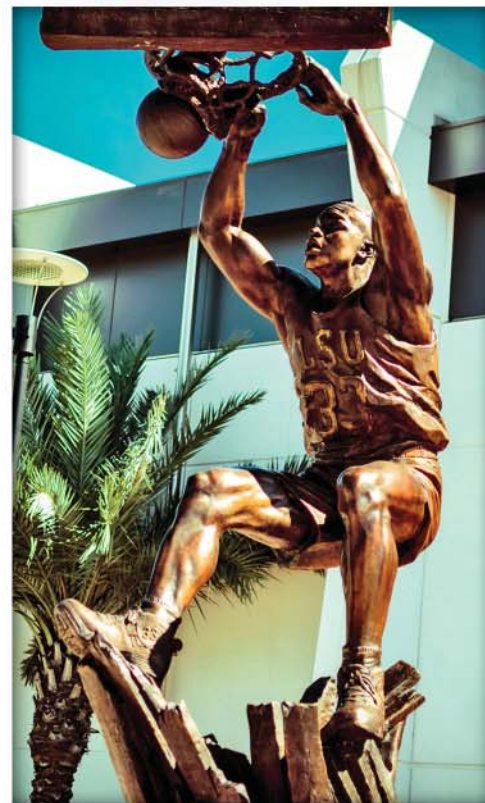

PETE MARAVICH Assembly Center

Home to the LSU Tigers since 1972, the 13,125 seat arena has been known as the Pete Maravich Assembly Center since 1988. Named for the program's greatest player - and the NCAA's all-time leading scorer - "Pistol Pete" Maravich left his mark on LSU as a player and his legacy lives on within the walls of the building that bears his name. Also known as the PMAC and the "Deaf Dome," the Maravich Center has been home to three NCAA Final Four teams (1981, 1986 and 2006), seven SEC Championship squads and the likes of legendary players Durand "Rudy" Macklin and Shaquille O'Neal.

LSU BASKETBALL PRACTICE FACILITY

The $15 million LSU Basketball Practice Facility officially opened its doors (photos) on Sept. 23, 2010, culminating years of vision, planning and a groundbreaking that occurred in the summer of 2008. One of the finest facilities of its kind in the nation, the building is attached to the north side of the Pete Maravich Assembly Center and provides the LSU Tigers with state-of-the-art features.

DISCLAIMER: The Johnny Jones Basketball Camp is open to any/all entrants only by number, age, grade level or gender. NCAA rules prohibit payment of camp expenses (transportation, camp tuition, spending money, etc.) by representatives of LSU's athletic interests. Furthermore, NCAA rules prohibit free or reduced camp admission privileges for prospective student-athletes in the (7th) grade or above.
